

Concerts, BBQs, festivals and more coming to a community near you!

Find the fun >

Grace and gratitude

What could you do if you woke up 15-minutes earlier each day? For Ron Romeyn, he chose to help an organization in need.

See how >

Charging Forward with EVs to benefit the planet and your pocketbook

DTE Energy has launched “Charging Forward” – a new program that will raise awareness of electric vehicle benefits while offering rebates to customers who install chargers.

Explore the savings >

Carbon Reduction Goals Drive Megawatt Partnerships

Michigan’s leading renewable energy advocates and policy makers gathered at the Michigan Clean Energy Conference in Traverse City to hear first-hand how Ford, General Motors, University of Michigan and DTE, are accelerating their commitment to renewables.

Saving energy >

A mother’s will

A mother always knows. Jennifer Kandy remembers the memory of her newborn daughter’s cries – a common sound for new parents to hear – but these cries were different, they were violent.

Why? >

DTE adds jobs through Michigan suppliers

DTE chairman and CEO Gerry Anderson announced today that the energy company will spend $10 billion with Michigan businesses over the next five years.

Learn more >

Pine River Wind Park brings community together

Under sunny skies, public officials and DTE Energy officially marked the commissioning of DTE’s newest wind park.

Explore the site >